

Social Studies:

- *Typed front-page report on a topic of the quarter
- *Sketch 3 scenes from history (Ex. Boston Tea Party)
- *List 20 important points about any state (Ex. Flower, location, climate)
- *Give 10 clues about someone in history or a president (listed in order from most difficult to the easiest)
- *Interview someone 60 or older, asking questions about school and home life back when they were children. It can be a tape or a written out interview of at least 10 questions.

Math:

- *Completion of 5 drill lessons handed out the last part of the quarter scoring a grade C or better.

English:

- *A 2-page creative writing story (neat and grammatically correct)
- *Three descriptive paragraphs about a subject without telling what it is
- *Three illustrated haikus or similar poems

There is no extra credit for spelling.

If you have your own idea for an extra credit project, talk to me about it. Extra Credit is accepted the last 2 weeks of the quarter. It must have your name, subject, and quarter on the top of the page. It will not be returned.